Bureau Agents observed known hoodlum RUSSELL DOUGLAS/MATTHEWS (DL 166-102) enter informant's place of business and then leave shortly after advising informant he would be in contact later. Informant then stated that he had heard that MATTHEWS, a known muscle man, was attempting to locate two Dallas hoodlums named CHARLES DAVID BOYD and WAYNE WARD on behalf of MATTHEWS' associate, gambler EDDY TOM GREEN (DL 162-360). Informant stated he had heard that GREEN and some other individual had taken a Dallas businessman and former gambler, G. E. "BLONDY" HALL, in a crooked dice game. HALL had paid off $3.600 of the money he lost and after thinking about it got in touch with BOYD and WARD to contact GREEN and his associate for return of his money. This information had previously been received by Bureau Agents on 7/27/65. from PCI JACQUELYN CHEWNING (DL 137-1714). This PCI had identified GREEN'S associate as JACK/KELLER and stated that when KELLER was contacted by WARD and BOYD. he returned his share of the money. GREEN heard about this and left GREEN then contacted MATTHEWS so that MATTHEWS could take the appropriate steps to protect GREEN. The original game took place sometime in late June, 1965.
